

Brad Mayne, CFE
President and CEO

Contact Information

972-538-1021
Brad.Mayne@iavm.org

Background

Brad Mayne, CFE is President/CEO of International Association of Venue Managers (IAVM). IAVM represents public assembly venue professionals from around the globe. Active members include managers and senior executives from arenas, convention centers, exhibit halls, stadiums, performing arts centers, university complexes, and amphitheaters. Member venues represent major expenditures of public and private funds in their communities, are an economic engine, and attract millions of patrons to an astonishing variety of events including sports, conventions, meetings, conferences, and artistic offerings.

Mr. Mayne has broad experience and proven leadership skills as an accomplished executive in the public assembly facility industry developing success with arenas, stadiums, convention centers and performing arts centers; employed by municipalities, private, and public/private organizations. He has served as a consultant and arbitrator for NHL, NBA and NFL facilities.

Most recently Mayne served as President/CEO of MetLife Stadium, President/CEO American Airlines Center, and Region Manager for Ogden Entertainment Facility Management.

Mayne has received numerous awards throughout his career including SEVT Lifetime Achievement Award (University of South Carolina), ALSD Visionary Award, IAVM McElravy Award, IAVM Foundation Legacy Award, Ogden Entertainment Masters Award, IAVM Ray Ward Award, and PollStar Magazine's Venue Executive of the Year.

Active in the communities Mayne has resided, he has served on Board of Directors for CVBs, Chambers, Sports Commissions, Super Bowl XLVIII, IAVM, and Cotton Bowl Classic.

