

TERMS & CONDITIONS
IAVM GROUP MEMBERSHIP

Group Membership delivers an affordable discount pricing structure which enables venues to sign up to 20 employees who are involved in venue management.

Applicants (members) must be a direct employee of the venue(s), a Stakeholder (Mayor, City Manager, CVB Professionals) or Student Interns.

Venues applying that are part of a complex shall only include staff members assigned specifically to the venue listed on application.

All Group Membership members are voting Professional Members.

One individual shall be designated the Primary Member/ Representative for the Group Membership. A venue qualifying for Group Membership may have up to twenty (20) memberships, i.e., direct employees of the venue or a stakeholder as specified. All individuals/members are expected to adhere to the principles outlined in IAVM's Code of Ethics.

$3,000 U.S. - A single payment is required to establish Group Membership – check, credit card or wire. If a PO is provided, membership will be activated upon receipt of dues.

Venues will pay applicable dues as outlined and will meet other criteria established by the board of directors.

In addition to a discounted rate, IAVM's Group Membership offers the convenience of one single renewal payment.

QUALIFICATION GUIDELINES:
Complex, Campus Or Local Facility
Authorities And Commissions May Be Eligible By Meeting The Following Criteria:

TWO OUT OF THREE OPTIONS
MUST BE MET: 1) A single, physical property—can include multiple addresses / Multiple venues under a single contract 2) Shares unified, daily operation chain of command 3) Falls under a single management and budgetary umbrella, for example, municipalities. This excludes private management firms.

FIRMS THAT DO NOT QUALIFY:

Private management firms...

- with multiple accounts in a community or region will not qualify (multiple venues under a single account could qualify)
- multiple venues in multiple communities will not qualify

2. Third-party tenants

3. Allied Members

Transition: Memberships are transferrable when an employee departs; if the new venue does not participate in IAVM's Group Membership program upon the employee's arrival, the departing member will be responsible for Professional Membership dues. The initiation fee will be waived. The departing member will have 60 days to set up their individual membership with IAVM at the professional dues rate. If the new venue is participating in the program and has space under the maximum number allowed, the member will assume the new venue's renewal date.

If the Primary Member/Representative departs the venue, responsibility for the IAVM Group Membership will be assigned to the next-highest ranking member by IAVM unless otherwise notified. Note: We ask that venues be strategic about who is responsible for updating the roster. It may not be practical for the top executive to be listed because of the numerous updates that may be required to keep the roster up-to-date.

IAVM reserves the right to approve or deny any membership applications.
